RAPID RESPONSE

RE: Notice of Mass Layoff

Dear Director Chong-Anna Canfora,

In accordance with the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, 29 USC §2101 et seq., you are hereby notified, as the State Dislocated Worker Unit, that a mass layoff will occur at the City of Romulus, 11111 Wayne Road, Romulus, MI 48174. The name and telephone number of a company official to contact for further information is:

Carol Mayerich, Director, Human Resources and Labor Relations
(734) 942-7512

The planned layoff is due to a permanent elimination of positions. It will, therefore, be a permanent layoff except to the extent the laid-off employees exercise any contractual seniority rights to fill subsequently occurring vacancies.

The expected date of the first separation is June 30, 2010, and the anticipated schedule for making separation is as follows: June 30, 2010.

At this time, the job titles of the positions to be affected are unknown.

The total affected number of employees will be sixty (60). All layoff records will be maintained on-site and readily available to the State Dislocated Worker Unit (Rapid Response Section) by Carol Mayerich in the Human Resources Department.
