The following reduction in force information is being provided related to mass layoffs by the Boeing Company at its facilities in the Heath, Ohio area. The following information reflects activity that has resulted in WARN notices in July. At present we have 60 employees planned for layoff on July 22, 2011. We will continue to communicate future layoff activities as required.

The 60 employee(s) affected by the layoff are not represented by a bargaining agent. They are classified in the following job categories:

- 42 Office Administration and Support
- 16 Professional Administrators
- 2 Administrative Management

All employee reassignment provisions, bumping rights and applicable company policies and procedures will be followed.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Carol Luft, Senior Manager, Global Staffing Workforce Utilization. She is located at 7755 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, WA 98108 and can be reached at 206-662-6336.

Sincerely,
